

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

The Indiana Telephone Privacy law has greatly improved our quality time at home, with virtually un-disturbed meal times and week-ends, which has been very much appreciated.

Thank you for your attention to this message.